> Probate Judge Kolp handed down his decision in the lost will case of ex Judge Henry M. Cole last Friday, to the effect that the latter made a will in 1904, leaving all his property to his wife during her life, after which it is to revert to his brothers and sisters. The testimony adduced at of the serious illness of her sis the trial was to the effect that ter. Mrs. Joe Goetz. The many D. W. Bowman and W. Y. Stubbs friends of Mrs. Goetz in Greenwitnessed the will, in which Thomas L. Brewer was named as executor and which was in Mr. Cole's own handwriting, he, at that time, being of sound mind and memory and under no restraint. Mr. Stubbs testified that some time after the will had been signed, Mr. Cole gave him two packages of papers to keep in his safe until he called for them, and in the event anything happened him, he (Stubbs) was to burn the letters and turn the other package over to his (Cole's) legal representatives. Mr. Stubbs further testified that the papers remained in his safe untouched until the spring of 1908, when Mr. Cole demanded them and both packages were turned over to him; that in his presence he burned the small package and took the other papers away with him, and at the time this latter incident occurred Mr. Cole's condition was not mentally good. After due consideration of all the evidence, Judge Kolp decided that Mr. Cole had made a will in 1904, which was duly witnessed, under the terms of which he disposed of his property as follows: "I give to my wife, Elizabeth Porter Cole, all of my property, both real and personal, for and during her natural life, and at her death to go to my brothers and sisters, or their legal heirs. I nominate and appoint my brother-in-law, T. L. Brewer, to be the executor of my will." Judge Charles Deardourff, 16 years Kolp further decided that there

Once a farmer had 1800 bushels of wheat, which he sold not to grain merchants, but 1800 difswift undercurrent, and he was ferent dealers a bushel each. A going under for the third time few of them paid cash but far the greater number said as it was not convenient then they would pay later. A few months passed and the man's bank account ran low. "How is this," he said, "my 1800 bushels of grain should have kept me in affluence until another crop is raised, but I have parted with the grain and instead have a vast number of accounts so small and scattered that I cannot get around and collect fast enough to pay expenses." So he posted up a public notice and asked all those who owed him to pay quickly. But few came. The rest said, "Mine is only a small matter and I will pay some other day," forgetting that though each account was very small when all were put together they meant went on thus. The man got to feeling so bad that he fell out of bed and awoke, and running to his granary found his 1800 bushels of wheat still there. He had only been dreaming. Moral-The next day the man went to the publisher of his paper and said, "Here, sir, is the pay for your paper, and when next year's subscription is due you can depend on me to pay it promptly. I stood in the position of editor last night, and I know how he feels to have one's honestly earned money scattered all over the

How to Make Tamarind Water. The pulp of the tamarind, that eccentric looking pod which is to be found in New York markets, has a peculiar "tang" and is used in a chilled beverage called "tamarind water." Remove the seeds and pulp from the pods, stripping off every particle of hard, woody fiber that may cling to it. To a cupful of shelled tamarinds add a pint of boiling water. Stir the mixture thoroughly until it is thick. Add a cupful of sugar and squeeze as much of the mixture through a strainer as possible. Set it near ice to cool, then add crushed ice and enough ice water to thin it a little. It should be very cold when served. Tamarind water, it is said, was once as popular as lemonade. It is still used occasionally for patients suffering from slight fevers and is recommended for bilious troubles. It is also administered to children instead of castor oil, as it is so much more attractive in flavor. This fruit is in season the year around, but it is best in the months of May and June.

DR. KUTCHIN

EX U. S. EXAMINING SURGEON

Specialist for the Treatment and Cure of all Long-Standing and Difficult Chronic Diseases and Diseases of the Blood and Nervous System

Will meet his patients in this county every month for the first year, and examine all afflicted free. Office, Columbus, Onio. Dr. Kutchin has been visiting this County every four weeks for fitteen years.

This well known specialist in the treatment and cure of difficult chronic diseases will give all the afflicted an opportunity to consult him free of charge and secure the latest and best treatment for such diseases as the regular family physician is not prepared to treat.

By seeing the Doctor the expense and trouble of visiting the city and going to a Hospital may be avoided.

CHRONIC DISEASES

The Doctor treats no acute diseases, but makes a specialty of chronic and long standing diseases. Cases given up by other Doctors and pronounced incurable he most desires to see. He has treated successfully many cases in Ohio in the last fifteen years that had been given up as incurable.

The Doctor is surrounded with a fine collection of instruments for examining and treating all chronic diseases of the Head, Face, Eye, Ear, Throat, Heart, Lungs, Stomach, Liver, Kidneys, Bladder, Skin, Brain and Nervous System, Cancers, Tumors, Piles, Swellings, Oid Sores, Fits, Paralysis, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Gout, Sick Headache, Debility, Depression of Spirits, Diseases of Children, Hereditary Diseases, etc., and, in fact, all long standing and chronic diseases. All surgical operations performed.

He adopted the following plan, which is peculiar to large hospitals, viz: he carefully notes the symptoms of the patient and ascertains the condition of the internal organs, all of which he carefully records in his register for future reference. In this way he ascertains the true nature of the disease and its cause. When sick people consult him, he readily tells them whether he can cure or help them, or whether they are beyond hope.

HIS IMPROVED METHODS OF TREATMENT

Are mild and pleasant, agree perfectly with the most delicate Lady or Child, do not reduce strength; can be used while at work and give the greatest possible benefit in the shortest possible time. Patients can consult him or communicate with him as often as they choose, during the whole time required for the treatment without extra charge, thus rendering the treatment as successful and satisfactory as though they were living next door.

DISEASES OF WOMEN.

Such as have baffled the skill of other physicians and remedies. Dr. Kutchin quickly cures Cancers, Tumors, Pibroid and Polypoid Growths, cured without the use of the knife. No cutting, no pain, no danger.

A LIFE OF EXPERIENCE

The Doctor has had a whole life of study and experience in his profession and enjoys advantages which fail to the lot of but few. After attending his full courses in the Medical Colleges, and graduating with the highest honors, he was not content to stop there, but has since attended other Colleges, and several times reviewed the whole profession; has also traveled extensively for the purpose of improvement, having visited the best Medical Colleges, Hospitals, Dispensaries, Eye, Ear, Lung and other Medical and Surgical Institutions of Europe, improving every advantage within his command, and devoting the best years of his life to become thoroughly familiar with his profession in all its branches.

There are many diseases which physicians in common practice do not usually treat, such cases are the Doctor's specialties. Are You Afflicted? Your case may now be perfectly curable, but remember, every moment of neglect brings you nearer its incurable stages, when, perhaps, the most skillful physician can render you no assistance. The present is ours, the future may be Too Late.

Free Examination of the Urine.—Each person applying for medial treatment should send or bring 2 to 4 ounces of urine, which will receive a carellexamination.  Cases and correspondence confidential. The Great Art of Dying. To die without rebellion and without weakness is the masterpiece of a man. A mountain guide whose name the London Mail does not mention in narrating the story of his heroism, with two others, was leading a party over one of the most dangerous passes of the higher Alps. The men, as is usual, were tied to gether by a long rope. As they scaled of a frightful chasm. The guide was at the end of the rope.

Without his weight there was a chance for the others to regain their footing; with it his experienced eye told him there was none. With instant courage he drew his knife from his belt and said quietly to the man next him:

"Tell mother how it happened, Ed mond.' He cut the rope and fell, never to be
